Burnaby School District Settlement Services (English)

Moving to a new country can be exciting time. It can also be an overwhelming and stressful event for families. The “Settlement Workers in Schools program” has been established to support permanent resident families during their settlement years in Canada and to assist with immediate needs including:

- Outreach to new immigrant families
- Information and counselling on settlement
- Orientation to school and community services
- Referral and service linking to community and government services
- Mentorship programs
- Conversation circles and peer support programs
- Settlement workshops
- Youth programs
- Parenting workshops
